

Re: General Release

Dear

This letter memorializes our recent discussions in which you and HOSTOO, Inc. (including its parent, subsidiary, predecessor, successor, sister and/or affiliated companies, including but not limited to Autofocus, Inc., as well as all owners, agents, managers, supervisors, employees, officers, and directors of the aforementioned entities, collectively referred to as the "Company") have agreed to resolve any and all disputes you may have with the Company. In consideration for your release of claims as more fully set forth below, the Company has agreed to pay you $50.00 which you would not otherwise be entitled to but for this agreement. You and the Company acknowledge that the Company's entry into this agreement is not an admission of liability as to any fact or issue regarding your employment with the Company.

In view of the above consideration, you and the Company have agreed that this satisfactorily concludes and settles in full any and all issues and possible claims regarding your employment or other association with the Company, and includes any possible claims under the various federal, state, and/or local employment laws and regulations, including but not limited to claims of wrongful termination or unlawful discrimination/harassment/retaliation as well as claims for disputed wages and/or deductions from your pay. You agree to waive and refrain from asserting any claims against the Company including but not limited to claims based upon tort, contract, statutes, or otherwise (including but not limited to claims under the California Fair Employment and Housing Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, the California Labor Code (including disputed or undisputed claims for alleged unpaid wages or penalties), ERISA, or the Age Discrimination in Employment Act). By signing this agreement, you also acknowledge that you have been paid all wages due and owing to you through the date of this agreement.

Notwithstanding Cal. Civil Code § 1542 (which provides that "A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him or her must have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor."), you expressly acknowledge that this agreement is intended to include, without limitation, all claims you do not know or suspect to exist in your favor at the time of execution of this agreement, and this agreement contemplates the extinguishment of any such claim(s). Also, by signing this agreement, you acknowledge that you have received all wages due and owing to you from the Company, and that you signed this agreement voluntarily and without coercion or duress.

Sincerely,

For Company

Date

Agreed and Accepted:

Date